

The Randolph Church Summer, 2007

All are invited to attend the 10:30 am. Sunday services at the Randolph Church during the summer of 2007. The leaders of worship are the following:

- | | |
|---------|---|
| July 1 | Monique Therriault, Berlin, NH
Organist: Heywood Alexander |
| July 8 | Lucy Alexander, Bedford, MA
Organist: Heywood Alexander |
| July 15 | Susan (Andy) Jepson, Concord, NH
Organist: Barbara Bishop |
| July 22 | John Weatherly, Alexandria, VA
Organist: Susan Ferré |

4:00 pm – Concert: Mennonite Sacred Music.
“Singing Our Story” Tara Shankar and family, with Heywood Alexander

- | | |
|-----------|--|
| July 29 | Edgar Adams, Richmond, VA
Paul Bradley, New York, NY
Ecumenical Communion Service
Organist: Barbara Bishop |
| August 5 | John Eusden, Williamstown, MA
Organist: Suzanne Ozorak |
| August 12 | Avery Post, Hanover, NH
Organist: Susan Ferré |

11:30 am - 123rd Annual Meeting

- | | |
|-------------|--|
| August 19 | William May, Charlottesville, VA
Organist: Barbara Wyssession |
| August 26 | Eleanor McLaughlin, Randolph, NH
Organist: Patti Dunn |
| September 2 | Anna Gulick, Wilmore, KY
Organist: Heywood Alexander |

Tara Shankar's Mennonite ancestors were part of the post-1717 flood of Swiss Brethren who emigrated from the war-ravaged Palatinate to Pennsylvania. Singing has been for centuries a (if not the) central liturgical practice of the Mennonites. For our concert on July 22nd, Tara (Rosenberger) Shankar, her parents Charlotte and Henry (Blooming Glen, PA), and siblings Hans (Altadena, CA) and maybe Tonia (Raleigh, NC), will share their heritage with us, informing us historically, and singing a selection of sacred songs, historically organized. Heywood Alexander will intersperse chorale preludes for organ based on some of these same tunes.

Randolph Colloquy 2007

July

- | | |
|----|--|
| 20 | Friday, 7:30 pm lecture, Jeffrey Lent, Lost Nation ; Mr. Lent will speak on his novel laid in the 19th century, about the territory known as Indian Stream. He is the author of In the Fall , and soon to be published A Peculiar Grace . |
| 23 | Monday, 10:45 am, book discussion; The Kite Runner by Khaled Hosseini |
| 27 | Friday, 7:30 pm, book discussion; The Kite Runner |

August

- | | |
|----|--|
| 3 | Friday 7:30 pm, lecture, Tom Kiernan
Mr. Kiernan is President of the National Parks Conservation Association. |
| 6 | Monday, 10:45 am, book discussion, The Storyteller's Daughter by Saira Shah. |
| 10 | Friday 7:30 pm, book discussion, The Storyteller's Daughter . |
| 24 | Friday 7:30 pm, lecture; Jim Schley, Robert Frost's Mountain Interval
Mr. Schley is Director of the Frost Place, a center for poetry and the arts located in Franconia, New Hampshire. |

All lectures will take place in the Municipal Building.

Book discussion locations will be announced later.

Refreshments will be served.

Fees: A family subscription to support the endeavor in the amount of $ 30.00 will cover all lectures for the immediate family. A fee of $ 5.00 per lecture will be charged for single persons.

Additional donations are always welcome.

There will be two meetings for each book discussion in order to accommodate different schedules. Discussion leaders are Michael Bronnert, Hilde Danforth, Bruce Kirmmse, and Sandy Wier.

We are most indebted to The Randolph Foundation, which has graciously underwritten the expenses for the Colloquy this summer.